

Education

Good Counsel students catch 'disco fever'

America's latest dance craze, disco, came to the stage of Our Lady of Good Counsel Auditorium last week, as students staged their second production of "Music In The Air," which also included square dancing, popular, and traditional music.

Performing the disco numbers were these young dancers:

The "Boogie Fever" troupe kneeling from left: Mike Kurdt, Ginny Malafeew, Jim Schwab, Lisa Rainey, Jack Trimer, Ronda Reyome, Liz Phillips, and Bonnie Magee.

The "Dance, Dance, Dance" troupe, standing: Lynette Clemons, Wilma Reynolds, Tony Cole (choreographer), Krystal Watson, and Kim Galli.

