

St. Augustine's and Our Lady of Good Counsel Churches Announce Closing Masses

The members of St. Augustine and Our Lady of Good Counsel Roman Catholic parishes, whose properties have been sold, have scheduled special Masses to solemnize the final closing of their doors. You are invited and welcome to attend these services.

The churches will open at Noon on the day of their closing Masses for prayer and reflection.

St. Augustine,
390 Chili Avenue,
founded in 1898,
will have its closing Mass at 2 p.m.
on Sunday, April 23, 2006.

Our Lady of Good Counsel,
640 Brooks Avenue,
founded in 1928,
will have its closing Mass at 2 p.m.
on Sunday, May 7, 2006.

The people of St. Augustine and Our Lady of Good Counsel are joining the congregation at St. Monica Church at 831 Genesee Street to create a larger, more vibrant faith community. We pray that our newly-formed parish will be able to provide more opportunities to do the Lord's work in collaboration with your community and other local churches to serve and minister to the people in our area of the city.
