

DO YOU REMEMBER?

1901

Choir Of St. Peter And Paul's Church

The choir of S. S. Peter and Paul's Catholic Church has always been in demand for special musical services and on September 21, 1901, was invited to sing the mass at the dedication of Holy Trinity Church, Webster. Professor Frank Pohl was director of the choir and the mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Miller.

The photograph reproduced above was taken on the front steps of Holy Trinity Church following the dedication service. It is loaned to The Times-Union by Joseph Schreier of the West End Branch of the Lincoln-Alliance Bank.

Those in the group from left to right are: Top row August Renaud,

Peter Renaud, Frank Dietrich, William Brickle and Joseph Drexler.

Center—Andrew Gotermeyer, Christ Weber, Fred Brien, William Ehrmantraut, George Barker, William Nagles Joseph Smith, George Staud and Peter Vay.

Front row—August Deprey, Albert Nagle, John Barker, Professor Frank Pohl, Joseph Schreier, Joseph Weber, George Dengler.

