Loving and faithful God, you have called me to live my baptismal commitment through life in the Congregation. Aware of my weakness, yet confident in the power of your grace, I renew my vows of chastity, poverty, and obedience in the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester, according to the Constitution of this Congregation. I desire to live in humility and charity, and to serve others without distinction by the works of mercy and justice. I ask your grace and the help of my sisters in community to be faithful to this commitment, to grow in it daily, and to live and die in the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester.

Be at Peace

Be at Peace
Do not look forward in fear to the changes of life.
Rather look to them with full hope that as they arise, God, whose very own you are,
will lead you safely
through all things
and when you cannot stand it, God will carry you
in his arms.
Do not fear what may happen tomorrow.
The same everlasting father who cares for you today will take care of you
then and every day.
He will either shield you
from suffering,
or will give you
unfailing strength
to bear it.
Be at peace
and put aside
all anxious thoughts
and imaginations.

— St. Francis deSales
