

Background for Edison Tech and Neighborhood United Collaboration

Reclamation of abandoned garden at corner of West Main and Brown Streets began Fall 2000

Tulip bulb planting Oct.2000

Crocuses emerge Spring 2001

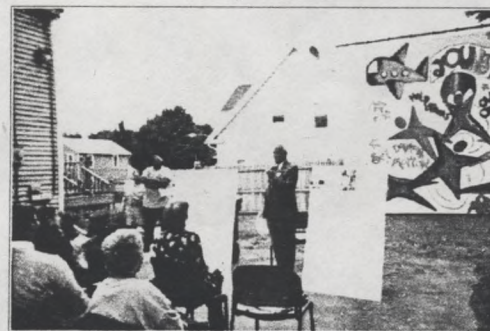

West Main & Brown Street clean-up in early spring 2001 after snow cleared

New housing along Brown Street made possible by Providence Housing

Juan Padilla (l.), president Neighborhood United Association

"A Walk with the Mayor" June 2001. Poster lists Edison as a partner in the Brown Street beautification project.

Garden as it appeared in October 2001. Mums were purchased from Edison's greenhouse

Abandoned garden with curbstones before Step teams and Edison input.

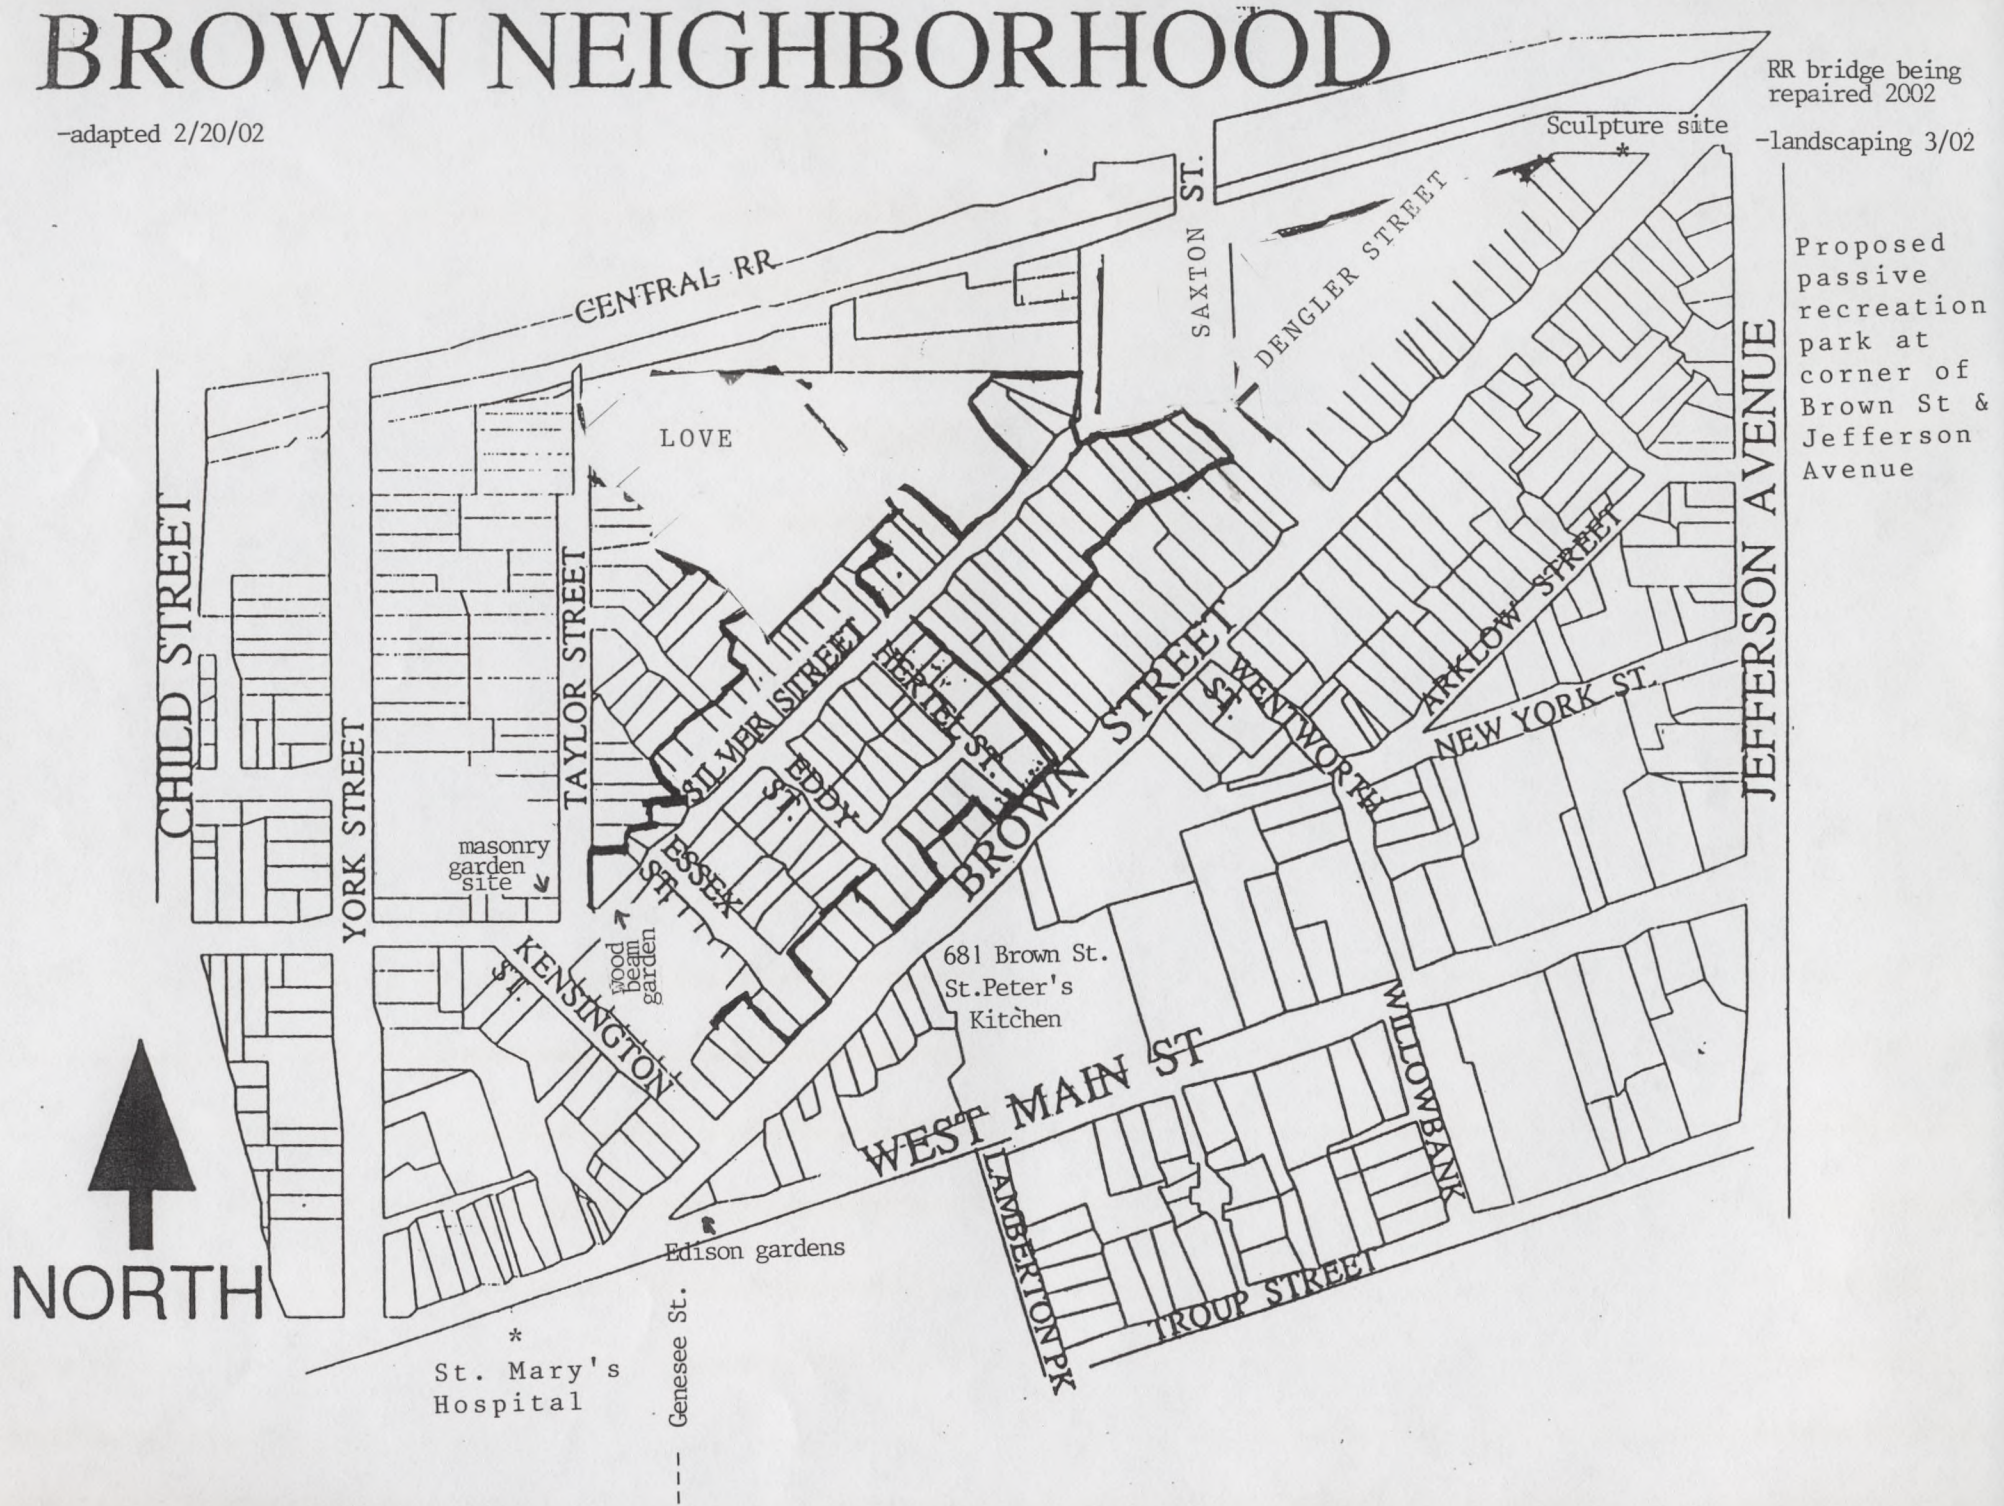

Same garden two weeks later. Edison students transplanted mums, spread topsoil and planted bulbs

BROWN NEIGHBORHOOD

-adapted 2/20/02

RR bridge being repaired 2002

-landscaping 3/02

Proposed passive recreation park at corner of Brown St & Jefferson Avenue