

The "West End" of Rochester, 1838. St. Peter's Church was built on the corner of Maple and King Street. (see yellow cross)
 West Main Street was then called Buffalo Street, also West Avenue. The site of the present SS. Peter and Paul's is marked by the yellow rectangle.